Young Israel Statements

Statements with the new dues for the year 2015-2016 had been mailed out. In order to reserve your seats for the High Holidays, you must be a member in good standing. This means you have paid your prior obligations and at least 50% of the current year's dues. If there are dues or pledges still owed from past years, please make every effort to redeem these obligations.

Young Israel Yizkor Book

We are working on our successful Yizkor Book, which we will have available for the congregation to use during the coming year when we will be saying Yizkor. The book contains the order of the Yizkor prayers, as well as the names of departed loved ones who we want to remember and honor. Like last year the listings are organized by family. The donation to list each departed loved one is $10.00. If you have listed your loved one (s) previously, we will renew it/them automatically unless we hear from you.

If there is a correction to the names listed last year

Please let us know as soon as possible

Parsha of the Week

Moses tells the people of Israel how he implored G-d to allow him to enter the Land of Israel, but G-d refused, instructing him instead to ascend a mountain and see the Promised Land.

Continuing his "review of the Torah," Moses describes the Exodus from Egypt and the Giving of the Torah, declaring them unprecedented events in human history. "Has there ever occurred this great thing, or has the likes of it ever been heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of G-d speaking out of the midst of the fire . . . and live? . . . You were shown, to know, that the L-rd is G-d . . . there is none else beside Him."

Moses predicts that in future generations the people will turn away from G-d, worship idols, and be exiled from their land and scattered amongst the nations; but from there they will seek G-d, and return to obey His commandments.

Our Parshah also includes a repetition of the Ten Commandments, and the verses of the Shema, which declare the fundamentals of the Jewish faith: the unity of G-d ("Hear O Israel: the L-rd our G-d, the L-rd is one"); the mitzvot to love G-d, to study His Torah, and to bind "these words" as tefillin on our arms and heads, and inscribe them in the mezuzot affixed on the doorposts of our homes.

This Week in Jewish History

- ◆ World War I broke out, 1914.
- ◆ The Russian army liberated Kovno in 1944.
- ◆ First reliable report of the Nazi plan to murder all the Jews reached the West, 1942. The U.S. State Department suppressed the report for several weeks, until it had otherwise been received by Jews in New York.
- ◆ he period of the expulsion from Spain began, 1492 (it was Tish'a b'Av).
- ◆ Hitler assumed the powers of head of state and commander-in- chief of the armies, making him an absolute dictator, 1934.
- ◆ Jews were ordered expelled from Hungarian Ruthenia, 1941 (it too was Tish'a b'Av).
- ◆ A handful of Jewish survivors of the Kovno ghetto – including Rabbi Efrayim Oshri, author of Responsa from the Holocaust – emerged from hiding, 1944.
- ◆ Columbus set sail for the New World, 1492. There is an entry in Columbus' diary noting the expulsion of Jews from Spain right before he set sail.
- ◆ Follow this one; these really gets you – The emperor of Bohemia, in 1797, ordered that Jews who volunteered for army service should be allowed to marry outside the restricted quota of marriage of Jews. Think about that one!
- ◆ Oil pipeline from Eilat to Haifa was completed, 1958.
