PARSHA SUMMARY: VAESCHANAN SOURCE: CHABAD.ORG

Moses tells the people of Israel how he implored G-d to allow him to enter the Land of Israel, but G-d refused, instructing him instead to ascend a mountain and see the Promised Land.

Continuing his "review of the Torah," Moses describes the Exodus from Egypt and the Giving of the Torah, declaring them unprecedented events in human history. "Has there ever occurred this great thing, or has the likes of it ever been heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of G-d speaking out of the midst of the fire . . . and live? . . . You were shown, to know, that the L-rd is G-d . . . there is none else beside Him."

Moses predicts that in future generations the people will turn away from G-d, worship idols, and be exiled from their land and scattered amongst the nations; but from there they will seek G-d, and return to obey His commandments.

Our Parsha also includes a repetition of the Ten Commandments, and the verses of the Shema, which declare the fundamentals of the Jewish faith: the unity of G-d ("Hear O Israel: the L-rd our G-d, the L-rd is one"); the mitzvot to love G-d, to study His Torah, and to bind "these words" as tefillin on our arms and heads, and inscribe them in the mezuzot affixed on the doorposts of our homes.

If a person finds that he lacks inner drive and zeal for good deeds, a technique to generate inner feelings is to behave externally as if you already feel enthusiasm.

We have more control over our actions than our emotions. So if we utilize what is in our power, we will eventually acquire what is not as much in our power. The external enthusiasm will then create an inner joy and a strong desire for spiritual growth.

HAFTORAHISAIAH 40: 1-26

SOURCE: CHABAD.ORG

This week's Haftorah is the first of a series of seven "Haftarot of Consolation." These seven Haftarot commence on the Shabbat following Tisha B'Av and continue until Rosh Hashanah.

This section of Isaiah begins with G-d's exhortation to the prophets: "Console, O console My people . . . Announce to Jerusalem that her period of exile has been fulfilled and that her sins have been forgiven."

Isaiah's prophecy describes some of the miraculous events that will unfold with the onset of the messianic era, such as the return of the exiles to Jerusalem, the revelation of G-d's glory, and the rewards and retribution that will then be meted out.

The prophet then goes on to comfort the people, describing G-d's power and might, and reassuring them of His care for His people.

MACHZOR UPDATE

We still have Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur
Machzorim available to be dedicated.
You can dedicate a Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur Machzor in honor or in memory of anyone for only
$72.00 a set or $36.00 for one.

Yizkor Book

We are working on our Yizkor Book, which we will have available for the congregation to use during the coming year when we will be saying Yizkor. The book contains the order of the Yizkor prayers, as well as the names of departed loved ones who we want to remember and honor. Like last year the listings are organized by family. The donation to list each departed loved one is $10.00 If you have listed your loved one (s) previously, we will renew it/them automatically unless we hear from you. If there is a correction to the names listed last year, please let us know as soon as possible.

Statements have been sent out with 2019-2020 membership dues. Please contact the office to pay your dues and any outstanding balance from previous years. In order to reserve your seat for the High Holidays, your outstanding balance must be paid and at least 1/2 of your dues for this year.

Whether you have a life seat or not, please call or stop by the office to reserve your seats for the High Holidays. Your seats are not guaranteed from year to year.
